

DEMISCH DANANT

Dear Friends,

We are following up to the inaugural exhibition book you have received, made in France.

Over the course of the coming year, you'll receive updates to this publication that tell new stories behind recent finds or discoveries. These additions will fit nicely into the blue folder of your book.

Most times, we can't anticipate the arrival of an extraordinary piece. In many cases, we've looked for a certain object for years. Sometimes the moment arrives as a result of lengthy research, but more often, the discovery is sudden and unanticipated. Collectors must be ready to act at any time: exceptional works don't appear every day and there is often competition. Such is the nature of collecting and perhaps that's the most exciting part.

We are pleased to share these latest discoveries with you in hopes they will provide more insight into the pieces we present at the gallery, and to include you in the process that leads to our exhibitions.

We look forward to seeing you soon.
